WWF-Malaysia also sincerely thanks the following people for their important and meaningful support of our events in Kedah, Penang and Sabah:

The Kedah State Government and Alor Setar City Council, as well as collaborators Aman Central, Alor Setar LM Bikers Club and Happy Star Entertainment Production Sdn Bhd, for their crucial support of the inaugural Earth Hour Night Run in Kedah.

The Penang State Government, Penang Island City Council and Gurney Paragon Mall, as well as collaborators Yes Media and Santa Fe, for their valuable support in making the Earth Hour Zumba and Night Yoga Event in Penang a success.

The Earth Hour in Kedah and Penang corporate sponsors: Celcom, Samsonite, Salesworks and SG Global Support Services.

The Ministry of Tourism, Culture and Environment, Sabah Art Gallery, Kota Kinabalu City Hall, corporate sponsor Nippon Paint Sabah as well as the Pillars of Sabah team comprising Red Hong Yi, Jared Abdul Rahman and Melissa Lo for the second edition of the Pillars of Sabah, which was launched in conjunction with Earth Hour 2019 to highlight the importance of wildlife conservation.

TikTok for collaborating with WWF-Malaysia to promote the #myEarthHour2019 campaign from 25 to 30 March 2019, which encouraged people to show their support for Earth Hour and biodiversity conservation by shooting videos using the customised Earth Hour sticker by TikTok.

Celebrities Aishah Sinclair, radio announcer; Jasmine Yeo Suk Peng, Miss Earth Malaysia 2018; and Viviana Lin Winston, Miss Planet International Malaysia 2019; for adding their influential voices to WWF-Malaysia's call to the public to #Connect2Earth and speak up about why nature matters this Earth Hour.
